AOHP and Kamo Management Extend Partnership Agreement

December 11, 2013 – The Association of Occupational Health Professionals in Healthcare (AOHP) and Kamo Management Services of Wexford, PA, recently signed a new four-year agreement to extend their professional affiliation. This partnership benefits the more than 1,000 members of AOHP and the thousands of healthcare workers these members care for in hospitals and other health-related facilities across the United States.

"AOHP appreciates the outstanding manner by which Kamo provides services to association leadership and to our members, so we are excited about our ongoing partnership," says AOHP Executive President Dee Tyler, RN, COHN-S, FAAOHN. "The Kamo team is responsive, reliable and effective, and AOHP recognizes Kamo as an intricate business partner that we rely on daily. Kamo staff work hard for AOHP, and we confidently trust them based on their high quality of deliverables."

"Kamo has provided full management services for AOHP since 2001, when the association was challenged with the task of finding effective and affordable association management services," comments Judy Lyle, Co-Owner of this women-owned and -operated business. "With prudent guidance and sound Board decisions, AOHP is a now a vibrant organization, continually providing a heightened array of benefits to its expanding membership. Helping to grow this association has been rewarding to Kamo staff."

During their 12-year partnership, AOHP has been able to offer significant growth in member benefits, with support from Kamo Management Services, without ever raising membership dues, including:

- The AOHP Listserv, a very popular tool for facilitating practice-related discussions among members.
- Quarterly and monthly e-communication to keep members up-to-date.
- An expanded Journal, which has been indexed in CINAHL, that includes great reprints of interest to members and offers insightful colleague connection articles.
- An informative, continually updated Web site that is easy to navigate.
- AOHP's national recognition as a leader in occupational health through collaborative efforts with NIOSH, ANA and the CDC.

Kamo Management Services helps associations maximize member focus and time management by directing all administrative operations and closely integrating with Board leadership and volunteer staff. Kamo's comprehensive association management services include: administrative support; membership services; organizational development; meeting and conference planning; financial management; and technology and Web site services.

AOHP is a national association whose vision is to be the defining resource and leading advocate for occupational health and safety in healthcare. AOHP promotes health, safety and well-being for healthcare workers through: advocating for employee health and safety; occupational health education and networking opportunities; health and safety advancement through best practice and research; and partnering with employers, regulatory agencies and related associations.
